got me mixed up in this case, as I know them all. Several times I have seen Mr. Hall come through, and then a little later Mrs. Mills would come along, get a paper, and after going upstairs and locating Mr. Hall, would leave the station shortly after Mr. Hall had left it." While in conversation with Garry Kenny at this time, a fellow came from the upper part of the station, and while passing said to Garry, "I seen the pig woman upstairs with a couple of Bulls." Garry remarked, "I wonder what she is doing with them?"

Operative shortly after the above mentioned conversation, left Garry and proceeded to the Middlesex Lunchroom. Operative observed several reporters in the Middlesex Lunchroom sitting at a table, and Operative overheard one of the reporters to remark, "Well she pointed him out to them."

At about 11 p.m. Operative left the Middlesex Lunchroom, proceeded to his room, and discontinued.
